PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1	Standard Condition #1: You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer tells you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
---	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Supporting Evidence: On August 11, 2025, Alicia Lopez allegedly violated standard condition number 1 by failing to report to the U.S. Probation Office within 72 hours of her release from imprisonment.

On the morning of August 8, 2025, the offender completed her term of imprisonment with the Bureau of Prisons and was released from the Federal Detention Center in SeaTac, Washington. Since her release Ms. Lopez has not reported to the U.S. Probation Office and has made no attempt to contact the undersigned officer.

On August 12, 2025, this officer received confirmation from BOP that the offender was released from custody at approximately 8:25 a.m. on August 8, 2025. As of the writing of this report, the offender's whereabouts are unknown.
